LOCAL BRIEFS.

Elks Raise $17,000—The Elks have secured over $17,000 in subscriptions for the San Fracisco sufferers.

Handsome Contribution-The Keith-O'Brien company of this city has con-tributed $1,300 worth of clothing for the San Francisco children; and the shipment left today, for the west,

Not Heard From-Earl Mackay, the saxaphone player, was in San Francisco before the earthquake, and has not been heard from. His associates in the Musical Union are becoming Water Application-Joseph Baker & Co., of Kelton, has filed application with the state engineer for 15 second feet of water from Locomotive Spring Boxelder county to irrigate 1,280 acres of farming lands.

Messages Going-The Postal Telegraph company management reported yesterday afternoon, that their decks had been cleared, and messages were then being forwarded without delay; also, that the new multiplex machines are now at work between Chicago and

Things That are Needed—The Sugar House ward Saints have sent off a fine large lot of bedding clothing and bread stuffs to San Francisco. The children's exercises the other evening interesting, as the children did especi-

Bids Rejected-The board of governors of the Commercial club has re-jected all bids for constructing the Wasatch drive as the contractors failed to include all the specifications in their estimates. The matter is referred to club committee on public parks

Saved His Samples-W. H. H. James of Boston is a traveling man, at the Wilson who had a fortunate experience in the San Fracisco disaster. He had his large stock of samples transferred three times between the Lick House and Golden Gate park, and finally got away with them all.

Extension Completed-The local Burlington offices are in receipt of a circular announcing the completion of the road from Frannie, Wyo., to Lovell, Wyo., 17.7 miles to the south in the Big Horn country. This extension will of great convenience to the Saints settled in that section of the country.

Bankruptcy Petition-A petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday in the United States district court by George F. Beckstead of Riverton, Utah. The liabilities scheduled are $233.645.63 and the assets $50, the principal creditors being the Floto Commission comof Omaha and M. A. Beckstead of Murray.

On Charity Mission-Grand Exalted Ruler Robert W. Brown of the Elks from Louisville, Ky., passed through Ogden yesterday, en route to San Francisco to relieve Elks in distress. Francisco to relieve Elks in distress, He had $10,000 in his pocket, and said $50,000 was back of him. He was met at Ogden by P. P. Christensen of the Salt Lake lodge.

Wister's New Book-The many west ern admirers of the writings of Owen Wister, author of "The Virginian," will be interested to know that his new book "Lady Baltimore," is now on sale in Salt Lake. The Deseret News book store has received the first consignand they are going like the proverbial hot cakes.

Legislators Agree-Letters received by Gov. Cutler from a majority of the holdover senators and also a of the other members of the Legisla ture heartily assured the governor that they favor the appropriation of $25,000 by the state for the aid of the California sufferers and will vote to approve the appropriation,

A Folding Bed—There was a tourist at the Wilson yesterday, who had a singular experience in the San Francisco disaster. He was in a folding bed at the Palace hotel, and when the earthquake came the shock folded up the bed, and had the man not been of unusual strength he would have been held a prisoner and smothered. As it was, he had hard work to escape.

Delegates Appointed—Prof. J. E. Talmage of the University of Utah, and Mrs. Young, probation officer of the juvenile court, have been appointed by Gov. Cutler as delegates to the National Convention of Charities and Corrections to be held in Philadelphia from May 16 to 19. The governor has reappointed Dr. F. S. Bascom as a member of the state board of health

Second Avenue Club-The Second Avenue club continues to grow, and its members are out on the war path after a still larger membership. There is in the city council a petition from the residents on Military avenue, ask-ing for the continuation of Second street on through the avenue, as this will make of Second street (the future Second avenue) a finer thoroughfare

Private Dining Room-The Burling-ton road has introduced the private dining room system on its cars, and claims to be the first to do this. The private dining rooms are at either end of the car with two tables, one seating four and the other two persons. seats are high and stationary, being built in the car, and are upholstered in leather harmonizing with the wood-

Atty. Lippman Returns — United States Dist. Atty. Joseph Lippman re-turned yesterday from Los Angeles, accompanied by his daughter. Miss Lippman had been visiting in Berkeley and left for the south two days before the terrible catastrophe. In Los Angeles the young lady felt the shock of earthquake that occurred there, though Mr. Lippman did not know of the shaking by actual experience. shaking by actual experience.

Appointment Approved—Word has been received by State Supt. of Schools Nelson from the Oread Institute at Oread, Md., that the appointment of Lester Anderson of Logan to a free scholarship in the school has been approved. The communication also states that, on account of the failure of some of the western states to appoint students for the scholarthips, Utah may receive two more ap-

Order of Washington-The concert given last evening, in Labor hall, un-der the auspices of the Order of Washington, in aid of the San Fran-

Laure" by the Euterpe Ladies' quartet was a fine effort, and the baby song by little Katy Fordyce and Gabriel An-derson, with dolls in their arms, was the feature of the evening.

Ill Away From Home-Word comes to Salt Lake of the serious illness of Mrs. E. J. Stevenson at Emery, Emery county, where she had gone on Relief society business. The cause of her trouble is pneumonia and there is much concern as to the outcome of her case though a telegram from Dr. C. F. Wilcox, her son-in-law, who is attending her, says her condition has improved. Mrs. Wilcox, her daughter,

Cohn Bros'. Generosity - Among other contributions which will be gratefully received by the San Frangratefully received by the San Francisco sufferers was a shipment made by Cohn's Dry Goods store of this city, of two full cases of ladies' wearing apparel carefully selected from the Cohn stock. Nothing can be more timely than such an offering in the face of the stories of destitution of the army of houseless women who are still being cared for in the stricken city.

Soldiers Were Brutal-James Winnehan of San Francisco is visiting with his sister at No. 4 Whittaker court, according to his narrative, was struck by an excited militiaman with the butt of a gun and severely injured, because he could not get out of the way quick enough to satisfy the sol-dier. The state soldiery were needlessly excited, even more so than the peo-ple were, and kicked, beat and bayon-cted people without cause or reason. But after Mr. Winnehan had got or board the cars en route east, it was one continual picnic.

Banks Must Agree-Local banking officials say that the San Francisco banks will, from the nature of things, find it necessary to agree upon a time when all shall resume business togeth er. As for the savings banks, they will have a hard time of it on account of having loaned out so much money or local real estate which has now shrunk so in value as to be barely appreciable so in value as to be barely appreciante to the approximate vision. Moreover, when the banks do open, the deposit-ors, having lost their property, will want their money right away, and the savings banks will be heavily drawn upon immediately.

Plumber Burned-While pumping water from the basement of the Union bar, 549 west Second South street Frank Torkelson, a plumber, was seri-ously burned yesterday afternoon. A five-gallon can of gasoline was upset and later when a light was carried in-to the cellar the gas, which was floating on the water, ignited, and in the blaze that followed Torkelson was severely burned. After receiving the attention of a physicion, the injured man was taken to his home, 2,437 Locust street. It is believed that he will soon recover. The blaze was extin-guished by the fire department, with but little loss to the premises.

Accused of Assault-A man named Clarence Berry was arrested last hight by Officer Jim Williams on the charge of having made an assault upon the person of Eliza Gunderson. The parties were attending a dance at the Utahna park, and it was at the rear of those premises that the offense alleged to have been committed. Berry is a married man, and his wife wa on the floor dancing at the time of the occurrence. The screams of Miss Gunderson were heard by Jesse Riser who was near by, and Officer Williams was immediately summoned When taken to the police station Berry made various pleas in extenuation of his wrong-doing, but he was locked up. Soon after he was visited by his bride of four months, who ex-tended her forgiveness and sympathy to her husband. Berry will have a hearing in the criminal division of the city court.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Today Miss Louise Moyle and James W. Silver were married in the Temple and tonight a reception will be held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ray Van Cott. Later the couple will leave for an eastern trip.

At 7 o'clock in the Temple B'nai Israel, Miss Juliet Marks and Jacob A. Kahn will be marred, the ceremony to be performed by Rabbi Freund and wedding supper to follow at the Emery Holmes.

Two weddings of interest to Salt Lakers will take place today at out-side points, that of Miss Clara Deal, daughter of Mrs. B. F. Deal of this city, and William J. Tollerton of Pocatello, master mechanic of the Ore-gon Short Line in Idaho, the wedding to take place at the home of Mrs. Deal's mother in St. Louis.

At Long Beach, Cal., Miss Edna Terhune, formerly of this city, and H. E. Wall will be marred, tought adding to the interesting list.

Last nght Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Riter entertained at dinner in honor of Horace Whitney and Allan Spencer who leave on Monday for a mission to Ger-

. Notwithstanding the paramount in-terest of the California disaster, Salt Lake people are showing deep interest in the performance to be given next Monday night in the Salt Lake Theater for the benefit of the free kinder-garten. Many box partes have been arranged and among the many dona-tions to the cause is the offering of in loaning costumes and other property for the performance. Mrs. Charlotte Newman who takes a leading part in one of the clever sketches to be given will wear, during the play, two beautiful picture hats, proffered by the Keith-O'Brien company, costing separ-ately $50 and $75. Three separate and beautiful costumes will be worn by Mrs. Newman in the sketch.

Rev. E. I. Goshen has gone east to spend the spring and summer.

A delightful affair of yesterday was the bridge tea given by Mrs. Russell L. Tracy, the rooms being beautifully decorated, and prizes being won by Mrs. Elizabeth Belden and Mrs. R. J. Glendinning.

Mrs. Ernest R. Eldridge of Portland is in the city, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Caine.

Mrs. J. W. impson entertained at ten today.

News came yesterday from many of the marriage of Harold El-dredge of this city, and Miss Barbara Mayr of Munich, the affair taking place in that city. Mr. and Mrs. El-dredge will remain for some time in Germany where Mr. Eldredge will continue his musical studies.
